True Dollar — what you keep

- Royalties, streaming, residuals, sync, touring, brand deals, IP, NIL & more
A profession toggle surfaces only the streams that pay YOU.
- Manager 10–20%, agent, business manager, attorney, CPA & advisor fees
See what representation really costs — before taxes.
- The headline number is never the take-home
True Dollar shows the net after fees and taxes, live.

WHY IT MATTERS

Artists don't have one paycheck — they have a dozen income streams, most of them 1099 or royalty income with no taxes withheld. Representation (managers, agents, lawyers) commonly takes 10–20% off the top, and professional fees stack on. The headline number an artist hears is almost never what lands in their account. ARTIST makes the whole picture clear while the money is still coming in.

WHAT'S INSIDE

- Profession toggle

Pick your roles — musician, producer, actor, comedian, visual artist, creator — and only your relevant income streams appear.

- Income-stream explorer

Plain-English guidance on how each stream pays and is taxed: streaming & mechanical royalties, PRO/performance, sync, masters, residuals (Netflix/Hulu), touring, brand deals, YouTube/Twitch, IP licensing, NIL, autographs and more.

- Your team's cut

Set manager (10–20%), booking agent, business manager and attorney percentages, plus flat CPA and investment-advisory fees — all deducted before taxes.

- True Dollar

A live read of gross vs. team fees vs. estimated taxes vs. the True Dollar you actually keep, with a smart set-aside percentage.

- The artist's money rules

Pay yourself a salary, set aside for taxes first, quarterly estimates, separate business and personal, own your IP.
